Native Spirit Performance Celebrates Cultural Richness and Unity

Madison, WI – The Valley of Madison is thrilled to announce the upcoming Native Spirit performance, a celebration of cultural diversity and unity, set to take place April 5-7, 2024 at the Wisconsin Masonic Center. The event promises an enriching experience, showcasing the vibrant traditions and heritage of indigenous communities and the talents of world champion performer, Nedallas Hammill.

Native Spirit will feature a variety of dances that highlight the rich cultural tapestry of indigenous peoples. Attendees can look forward to traditional music, high energy dance performances, storytelling, and a meet and greet with performers after the show that offer insights into the customs and stories of these communities.
